GOV. DRAKE of Iowa has signed the new state liquor law, molding the sections allowing manufacturing. So that breweries and distilleries are being started all over the state.

Kill Him, Dan.

The Colby Tribune spells Dan Dyer's name Dan "Diar." Some day the intelligent compositor will get his finger in the "L" box, and there you are: Dan "Liar."—Goodland Republic.

THE good people of Topeka are up in arms over an open saloon that was started in that city. Senator Peffer wanted a mob of fifty organized to clean them out, while the Rev. Mr. Embree wanted a gang of 500 to do the job. The meeting passed some strong resolutions.

SAY Royce, why don't you tell the republicans all about the little war over the post offices and such, that is now going on in Washington between the forces of Cy Leland and Senator Baker? You are so anxious to have the pop papers tell about the war in their party, and it don't look well for you to overlook those in your own.

THE stock yards at Kansas City are trying to defeat the bill passed by the last legislature fixing charges. The company claims that at even the present rates it is only making six per cent on the money invested. The investigation has disclosed that while that statement is true over a million dollars of stock have been given to stockholders in lieu of dividends and that the salaries paid are to say the least generous, as the general manager gets $10,000 per annum, and several other employees $5,000 each.

DEADWOOD parties have made application for 3,000 square feet in the mines and mining building at the Trans-Mississippi and International Exhibition, to be held at Omaha, soon, for an exhibit of the mining industries of the Black Hills, which it is expected will require even more space than that mentioned. The intention is to make this the most attractive mining exhibit ever known. The Ragged Top mining district will be reproduced in miniature, together with new devices in mining machinery.

LAST fall Brother Royce worked himself into a great rage because we published a letter of one Forsythe in which it was claimed that the republican party wanted to rule the country by "commissions" instead of by congress and legislatures. We would like to call the gentleman's attention to the fact that Mr. McKinley has appointed a "money commission," and that Senator Cullom and others now want a tariff commission appointed. Mr. Cullom says: "I believe that through the judicious agency of a permanent tariff commission composed of experts, statisticians and business men such changes could be made from year to year by congress as might be indicated and clearly shown to be wise. This would save the necessity of requiring a change of the whole tariff system by whatever party came into power."

TOPEKA has learned a lesson. Let Tom Anderson tell the story:

"I know we have been criticized because the last reunion was turned into what was called a political pow-wow, and I suppose I am as much to blame for what was done as anyone. I was responsible for the visit of the generals, for I met General Alger in St. Paul and made him promise to come. I know that it is charged that the G. A. R. has drifted into politics, and I suppose I am as much to blame for that as anyone, but you will agree with me that it was impossible to keep politics out of the reunion last year. It was a presidential year and the soldiers had to talk politics. But I want to say right here that I am in favor of a non-partisan reunion where politics is not talked. It can be held, and I believe that it will be. Those who heard Comrade McKinley talk at Ottawa a few years ago as a representative of the old soldiers did not hear a word of politics. They knew that he was a prospective candidate for president, but were disappointed if they expected to hear any politics. Let us have our reunion and make it non-partisan. I know that I have done a great deal of talking myself, but if the gang that is trying to control republican politics in Kansas gets into power, I think I will be ready to quit talking."

THERE are three populist papers in this county, and while there is a legislative committee in Topeka uncovering some of the rottenest transactions ever known in the history of the state, yet these journals are as silent as the grave about what this committee is doing. Why don't they tell their readers what the committee is doing? The only reason why they don't do it is because every scoundrel, so far discovered, is a member in good standing in the pop party. Some of the leading pops of the state are trying to call the committee off, and give as a reason that their work is injuring the populist party of the state, and injuring the chances of the party in its effort to succeed itself next year.—Dispatch.

Tut, tut, Brother Royce. If you had but a little political fairness we might feel hurt by the publication of the above. We do not presume to speak for the other populist papers in the county, but for the HERALD will say that the fact that such an investigation has been going on has been told its readers several times. If you will tell us where to find any reports of the facts found by this investigating committee, we will be only too glad to print the statements contained in such report. As we understand it several members of the legislature have been charged with receiving bribes offered for their votes upon certain questions. The parties so charged, and the parties most directly interested in the legislation deny receiving or offering any such bribes. Here the matter rests until the committee files its report.

Do We Want a Creamery?

The creamery meeting last Saturday was attended by a very small crowd, not over a dozen being present. Mr. Marple of the Kansas Creamery Company has submitted to our people the following general proposition: The Kansas Creamery Company asks our people to build a creamery skimming station to be 18x22, 12 feet high to be equipped with a nine horse power boiler, and a six horse engine, together with a separator, vats, scales, and other necessary tools, the building and fittings to cost $1,500, and will if desired be erected by the Kansas Creamery Company. The outfit to be paid for, one-third when ready for use, one-third in three months, and balance in six months. Stock will be issued to subscribers to the fund. The Kansas Creamery Company will then rent the outfit for a term five years, and will pay for same when the amount of milk amounts to 3,000 pounds per day, six per cent on the money invested, when 5,000 pounds eight per cent; when 10,000 pounds, ten per cent. The company also agrees to pay the same price for milk as is paid at the Belleville creamery. At the meeting Saturday last a committee consisting of James Carmin, Albert White, O. E. Johnston, John Kendrew and Wm. Swim was appointed to assist in securing stock subscriptions. So far some twenty shares of stock have been subscribed.

The question now resolves itself into this: "Do we want a creamery skimming station located at this point?" If we do we must subscribe $1,500 to the stock company. If we do not want such a station it is not necessary to subscribe anything. Other towns in the county are waiting to see what this place will do. A creamery means about double the price for butter, more and better cows, an increase of stock, employment for men, and a general advance toward those conditions under which the people of the older states live. The question should not be who has subscribed for stock, but do I want the town and country built up that much?

The Goddard-Edwards Wedding.

Mr. Arthur Goddard and Miss Carrie Edwards were married Wednesday, May 12, at 5 o'clock p. m., at the Edwards home, four miles northwest of town, Rev. J. G. Schliemann officiating. They made a fine looking couple. The brides dress was of fine gray wool stuff, the yoke, bosom, and cuffs were of green satin with cream chiffon in neck and sleeves edged with wide green chiffon. The groom was well set off by a suit of black. Only the immediate relatives were present. A most excellent supper and a family social followed the ceremony. The young couple have gone to Republican City on a visit to Mr. Goddard's brother. May a long life and true prosperity be their portion.

The Normal Institute.

Our people are much disappointed over the decision of Superintendent Tadlock to hold the normal at Kirwin this year, while the good folks of that town are correspondingly elated. There is no law, aside from that of expediency, fixing the point at which the normal must be held, and Mr. Tadlock, possessing a full knowledge of the fact, located the institution for this year as above stated. The normal is supposed to be self sustaining, so that every dollar taken for incidental expenses reduces the amount available for instruction just that much. The people of Kirwin are making full arrangements for making the normal a success, and will give a right royal welcome to those students who may attend. The next year's normal will be a two month's session and will be held here.

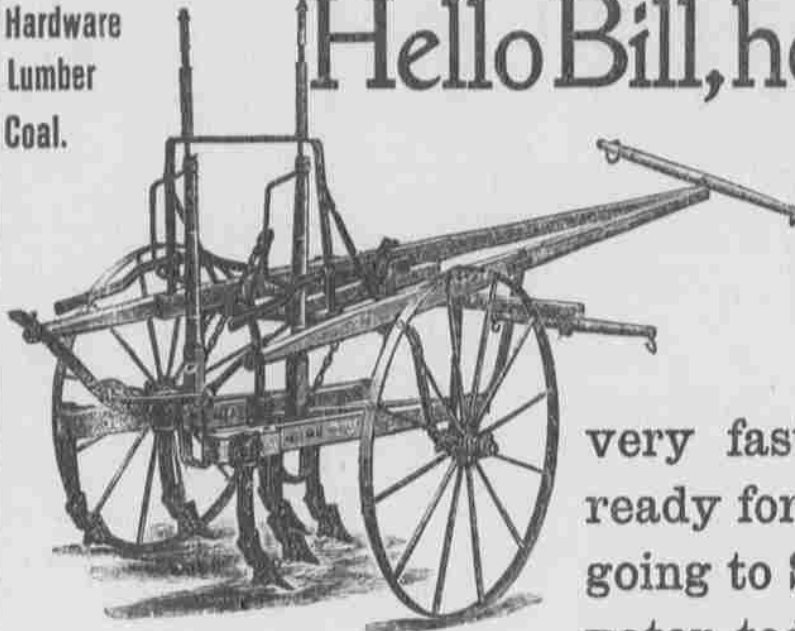

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at James & Co's drug store.
